President's Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board

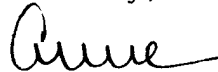

September 23, 1987

Dear Bill:

I have just learned that the advisory board of the Center for Strategic and International Studies is having a luncheon September 30th that I must attend as chairman of the Board of Trustees. Needless to say, I am terribly disappointed to now have to reverse myself and decline your invitation for the 30th anniversary. I was looking forward both to the occasion and the chance to see you.

I know you'll have a great day and I'll be with you in spirit.

Sincerely,

Anne L. Armstrong
Chairman

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
